MEMORANDUM

TO: THE SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE

FROM: THE CHIEF OF STAFF, AIR FORCE
SUBJECT: [Illegible]

1. This memorandum is submitted for your information and guidance regarding the proposed changes in the structure of the Air Force Staff. The proposed changes are being considered in view of the increasing complexity of the Air Force's operations and the need for a more efficient and effective staff organization.

2. The proposed changes include the elimination of the position of Chief of Staff, Air Force, and the creation of a new position of Chief of Staff, Air Force, which will be responsible for the overall management and coordination of the Air Force's operations. This new position will be held by a senior Air Force officer who will report directly to the Secretary of the Air Force.

3. The proposed changes also include the reorganization of the Air Force Staff into three main functional areas: Operations, Administration, and Personnel. Each of these areas will be headed by a senior Air Force officer who will report to the Chief of Staff, Air Force. This reorganization is intended to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Air Force Staff's operations.

4. It is recommended that the proposed changes be approved and implemented as soon as possible. This will ensure that the Air Force Staff is able to meet the increasing demands of the Air Force's operations in a more efficient and effective manner.
