

RESTRICTED

speed from the direction of Bluthenthal Field at 1:20 p.m., over the Cape Fear River, then veered at a low speed back towards Wrightsville, a little to the west.

The local office of the Civil Aeronautics administration discredited a supposition by Bluthenthal Field's station manager James Holomon, that object could have been a P-50 plane in flight. The CAA said there was no such plane in the sky there at the time.

RESTRICTED