

a - This is an entirely new type of air craft or b - It is a high powered jet propelled unit with a paint job designed to hide the tail assembly and wing tips, since neither were in evidence.

A check of air craft in this area at the time specified should determine and possibly answer this mystery.

If possible, I should like very much to know the answer.

Howard A. Chamber